“Girls Invited To Learn About Golf”

Riviera Beach, FL (USA), July 29, 2008 – LPGA-USGA Girls Golf of Riviera Beach/Royal Palm Beach, FL (USA) has scheduled “LPGA-USGA Girls Golf Day 2008” for August 2, 2008 at The Links at Madison Green, 2001 Crestwood Blvd North Royal Palm Beach, FL. Since its inaugural year in 1999, LPGA-USGA Girls Golf Day has been an annual event devoted to making golf accessible to girls and furthering their interest in the game.

LPGA-USGA Girls Golf provides an opportunity for girls to learn to play golf, build lasting friendships and experience competition in a fun, supportive environment and preparing them for a lifetime of enjoyment with the game. Over 6,000 girls will participate nationwide in LPGA-USGA Girls Golf at more than 180 sites during the next thirty days.

This event is open to all girls between the ages of 7 - 17 who want to learn more about golf and who would like to become members of “LPGA-USGA Girls Golf of Riviera Beach/Royal Palm Beach.” This is an introduction to the game of golf. You do not need to know how to play golf or have golf equipment.

“We hope to expand our reach and elevate girls’ enthusiasm towards the game of golf,” said Esmeralda H. Knowles, Site Director & Executive Director of Inner City Youth Golfers’, Inc. Festivities for our first one will promptly begin at 3:30 PM and include chipping, putting, full swing, pitching, prizes and refreshments. Come and enjoy an afternoon of golfing fun.

This program is also supported by Sheriff Ric L. Bradshaw (LETF) and Signs By Tomorrow. For more information, please contact me at the number or email below.
